

Magic Library

One day after school we went to the library. I love the library. I go to the kids section. I find "The Magic Faraway Tree". It is my favourite book. I sit down on a cushion that is rainbow. I start reading.

Smoke appears. Poof! Cough! Cough! I cough a few times. All of a sudden the library disappears and I am sliding down the slippery dip. I am so astonished that I nearly slip off my cushion and then I pop out of the slippery dip with Jo, Beth and Franny standing in front of me.

I say 'Hi I am Isabelle and you are Jo Beth and Franny'

'Yes we are'

I say 'what land is up at the top of the tree?'

'why didn't you know? The land of sweets. Would you like to come with us?'

'Yes please'

I felt very glad to be with them because I wouldn't like to get lost.

We meet Moonface and Silky. Wow! Some of my favorite characters in real life!

We all go up to the land of sweets. We start eating and eating and eating. I need a tooth brush and a hot water bottle! Suddenly huge hot water bottles and tooth brushes appear out of nowhere and start chasing us around and around and around the land of sweets.

I can hear the humming sound that means the land is moving on!

We run over a rainbow to get to the hole in the clouds. As soon as I step off the rainbow I am sliding down the slippery dip. Wheee! I pop out of the slippery dip and I am back in the library! I go to tell my Mummy and she says 'oh my golly gosh!'
