

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

From 9am Friday 22 July 2022

Our library customers should note the following advice:

Do not enter the library if you have COVID, cold or flu symptoms, or feel unwell

Wearing face masks is strongly recommended

Maintain physical distancing guidelines

Sanitise your hands on entering the building, after using any equipment or handling books, DVDs, etc. and visiting the toilets. Hand sanitiser stations are at the entrance to the building and in key locations around the library

Cover coughs and sneezes

Keeping our customers and staff safe from illness remains a high priority for Your Library.

Once in the library, wearing face masks is strongly recommended for both our customers and staff.

If you choose not to wear a mask, or display COVID, cold or flu symptoms during your visit to the library we may need to change how we interact with you.

Customers must comply with all directives from the nominated Officer-In-Charge, which may include being asked to leave the library if you show significant signs of illness.

If a customer requires help with technology or our collections, we ask you to respect our physical distancing guidelines for your health and safety of you and that of our staff.

If you are unwell, Your Library offers the following services:

- Call + Collect and Postal Delivery as alternative services
- Extensive online resources and collections

Disclaimer

Your Library is committed to ensuring that its stakeholders health and safety is the top priority of running our services or activities, which includes adhering to any state and federal laws, policies and restrictions imposed on us, you and any of our venues. Due to the complex and evolving nature of these laws and restrictions, as well as Your Library's capability to adhere to them, the delivery format of our services and activities, including their delivery in entirety, is not guaranteed.

Participation in our services and activities includes possible exposure to and illness from infectious diseases including but not limited to COVID-19. While particular rules and personal discipline may reduce this risk, the risk of serious illness and death does exist.

Accordingly, Your Library and its employees and agents shall have no liability (including without limitation liability by reason of negligence) to any users of our services and activities for any loss or damage (consequential or otherwise), cost or expense incurred or arising by reason of any person using our services or activities whether caused by reason of any error, negligent act, omission or misrepresentation in the services or activities.